SYNOPSIS : As a result of an estimated twenty penetrations, some at fairly high level, ZIPPER enjoys a rare insight into a political and psychological warfare operation carried out by the Sov. Zone "National Demokratische Partei Deutschlands" (NDPD) and the Hesse "National Demokratische Partei" (NDP) in and against West Germany.

This operation, possibly RIS directed but certainly Soviet sp. proved, addresses itself to former Wehrmacht, Hitler Youth, SS and NSDAP officers for (a) political action against the West and for friendly relations with Soviet Russia, (b) for the recruiting of personnel for the DDR VOP and para-military "Dienst fuer Deutschland" and (c) for some vague intelligence such as situation reports.

While unqualified to process and analyze ZIPPER's product adequately, we have tried to report what we can add in operational data, from POF files and from conversations with ZIPPER and submit our admittedly superficial analysis.

A. Introduction.

1. Between December 1952 and March 1953 ZIPPER has passed to us the attached thirteen memos on this complex containing more than 200 pages of reports and involving some 170 - 200 personalities. The memo numbers of these reports are 4246, 4321, 4344, 4348, 4496, 4498, 4586, 4684, 4711, 4939, 5068, 5064, and 5099. Six of these deal with ZIPPER's

✓ RUDEL

Hans Ulrich

Oberst a.D.

R. soll sich seit September 1952 wieder für ständig in der Bundesrepublik aufhalten und bei DEW eine Anstellung gefunden haben. Hat von Argentinien aus seit Kriegsende des 8teren illegal Westdeutschland besucht. Verschiedene rechts- und linksgerichtete Gruppen versuchten, RUDEL für sich zu gewinnen (darunter das "Freikorps Deutschland"). Über die "Bewegung Reich" ist R. zum eingeladen worden, um bei der bekannten Soldatentagung am 3.12.52 in STUTTGART als Aushängeschild zu dienen.
